

New Hires

July 2012

Aie Richardson joined ULC in July, 2012 as Director of Business Development to expand the ULC optical components product line and broaden the customer base in Photonics Industry. She began her business career in the Optical Industry in 1984 and has served in various management capacities, including Sales, Operations, Purchasing, Planning and Production in optical manufacturing companies. Prior to joining ULC, she served 8 years in the defense industry as Supply Chain Management for Northrup Grumman Laser Systems in Apopka, Florida. She holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Seoul National University.

April 2012

Jerzy "George" Stec joined ULC in April of 2012 as Coating Manager. He has more than 30 years of process development, process improvement, yield improvement and management experience in thin film optical coating. His previous work history includes: Manager at TAKOS (3 years), Engineering Manager at Universal Thin Film Lab (2 years), Senior Applications Engineer at Dynavac (2 years) and Coating manager at ZYGO (22 years).